FOUNDATION FOR INNOVATION & DISCOVERY

FOR TECHNOLOGY & SERVICE COMPANIES

Business intelligence for national security

Connect your technology or service organization directly with operators, analysts, and government decision-makers. Gain early mission intelligence and accelerate your public sector pipeline.

Our mission: The Foundation for Innovation and Discovery (FINND) is a non-profit organization that nurtures a community of interest around innovation, sparks conversation between government and industry, and educates decision makers. The FINND culture promotes an environment of non-proprietary collaboration and transparency in the discovery of innovative solutions.
